Notes:		A * after the TPM indicates that I have confirmed the figure on an actual example of the speedo and the number has been confirmed by a manufacturer and repairer of the instruments. A ! after the TPM indicates the number has been confirmed by a repairer of the instruments.
	1	The Parts Catalogue shows these serial numbers as having the same part number but actual instruments and manufacturers data show different TPMs.
	2	Clausager shows Canada and Japan having KPH speedos from 1978, and Canada and Japan 1980 models having 6-digit odometer, but these changes are not shown in the Parts Catalogue.
	3	North American spec including Japan had 4 speedos for 1977 on, probably plastic 'glass' with protruding trip reset button.
	4	85mph speedos with 6-digit odometer, not in Parts Catalogue.
	5	Parts List shows this type continuing till Jun76
	6	Clausager states 80mm from Sep74 LHD roadsters only made for North American market after Jun76
	7	Reads to 120mph, additional kph markings. Figures outside markings, numbers go 10/20/30.
	8	Reads to 120mph, additional kph markings. Figures inside markings, numbers go 10/30/50.
	9	XA5(XAS?),175x14 tyres, 80mm, 140mph
	10	Use with right-angle drive
	11	Axle ratio changed and hence speedo
	12	KPH 620 turns per kilometer have the same gearing as MPH 1000 turns per mile speedos, similarly KPH 800 and MPH 1280.
	13	In Parts Catalogue as SN6124/04A.
